

TUESDAY
23 APRIL 2024
5.00-6.30 PM
(CET)

FREE CPD WEBINAR

Voting Matters: Igniting Change in the EU Elections

What are today's burning issues at EU level?

How can we engage young people in the European Parliament elections?

Why do EU elections matter?

Gain valuable insights

on the European Parliament elections and discover the power of social media in reaching out to first-time voters and encouraging voter turnout.

Luisa Antonioli
UNIVERSITY OF TRENTO

SHORT BIO:

Full Professor of Private Comparative Law in the Department of Law and at the School of International Studies of the University of Trento.

SESSION HIGHLIGHTS:

We will discuss the importance of voting in the EU elections in a time of challenges like the war in Ukraine, the climate crisis, AI, and other concerns relevant to young people.

WITH:

SESSION HIGHLIGHTS:

We will look at how EU social media channels can be used in the classroom to bring Gen Z closer to the EU institutions and boost civic participation among young people.

SHORT BIO:

Teacher trainer since 2013 and member of the ANFIS board, with a special focus on active citizenship and debate methodology.

Luisa Broli
TEACHER TRAINER

MODERATORS: Michele Nicoletti & Tiziana Faitini

BOOK YOUR FREE PLACE AT [LINK]
OR SCAN THE QR CODE
BY 12 APRIL 2024!

A confirmation email with the webinar link will be sent to you after registration.

This webinar is part of a series of initiatives carried out by GrACE – Green Europe: Active Citizenship and the Environment, an international teacher training programme dedicated to equipping educators with in-depth knowledge about the European Union and its strategies to address the climate crisis. The project is carried out by the University of Trento.

Participants will receive an official Certificate of Attendance issued by the University of Trento/JM Centre upon request.

