

QUIZ QUESTIONS

1. What does "agroecology" mainly focus on?
 - A. Using the most advanced farm machinery
 - B. Increasing chemical fertilizers use
 - C. Farming in harmony with nature
 - D. Growing only one type of crop

2. Which of these is a key principle of agroecology?
 - A. Maximizing profit only
 - B. Promoting biodiversity and healthy ecosystems
 - C. Using genetically modified seeds exclusively
 - D. Importing food from other countries

3. What is a common practice in agroecological farming?
 - A. Monoculture
 - B. Crop rotation
 - C. Over-irrigation
 - D. Clearing forests for farmland

4. Why is deforestation a concern in food production?
 - A. It increases cloud cover
 - B. It creates more land for wildlife
 - C. It destroys habitats and releases carbon dioxide
 - D. It improves the quality of air

5. Which farming method helps reduce environmental harm?
 - A. Organic farming
 - B. Industrial agriculture
 - C. Intensive farming
 - D. Pesticide spraying

6. Livestock occupies:
 - A. A vast amount of land
 - B. 50% of Earth's total land surface
 - C. A small amount of land
 - D. 10% of Earth's total land surface

7. What is the goal of sustainable development?
 - A. To increase development
 - B. To meet present needs without harming future generations
 - C. To grow economies without thinking of the environment
 - D. To focus only on social issues

8. Which of the following actions supports sustainable development?
- A. Using industrial farming
 - B. Building more roads in underdeveloped countries
 - C. Relying on fossil fuels
 - D. Using renewable energy sources
9. Which of the UN Sustainable Development Goals relates to food?
- A. Quality Education
 - B. Industry, Innovation and Infrastructure
 - C. Zero Hunger
 - D. Clean water and sanitation
10. How does climate change affect farming?
- A. It makes crops grow faster everywhere
 - B. It reduces the need for water
 - C. It can cause droughts, floods, and crop failure
 - D. It lowers temperatures across the planet
11. What is one way to reduce climate change in agriculture?
- A. Using compost and natural fertilizers
 - B. Expanding industrial farming
 - C. Burning more fossil fuels
 - D. Clearing more forests
12. What does the Fair Trade label mean?
- A. The product is on sale
 - B. The product is high-quality
 - C. The product comes from a local supermarket
 - D. The producer was paid fairly and worked under safe conditions
13. Why is Fair Trade important for farmers in developing countries?
- A. It makes them work less
 - B. It helps ensure they earn a decent living
 - C. It stops them from exporting
 - D. It improves their product quality
14. What are participatory supermarkets?
- A. Supermarkets we usually find in our villages
 - B. Cooperative supermarkets, where members actively participate in operations
 - C. Discount grocery stores
 - D. Large self-service shops selling foods and household goods