to deepen your understanding of how challenge-based learning can be used to address critical environmental justice issues.

This talk will delve into challenge-based learning (CBL) by exploring real-world challenges like sustainable food production and equitable access to clean water. Through interactive sessions and expert insights, discover how CBL fosters collaboration, critical thinking, and equips participants with the skills to drive sustainable change, in support of Europe's green transition and the collective efforts to address environmental challenges through innovative and inclusive approaches.

MODERATOR: Jennifer Hill

This webinar is one of several initiatives carried out by GrACE – Green Europe: Active Citizenship and the Environment, an international teacher training programme led by the University of Trento. It aims to provide educators with comprehensive knowledge of environmental issues and the EU's strategies for tackling the climate crisis, along with innovative methods for teaching about green issues.

Participants with minimum 75% of attendance during the session will receive an official Certificate of Attendance issued by the University of Trento/JM Centre upon request.
