

The Lomaglio Fund

The Lomaglio Collection comprises a rich body of documents from General Lomaglio's archive, including photographs of everyday life, landscapes and family moments, as well as the general's personal diaries. A significant portion has been digitised in high resolution for public consultation and collaborative research.

Project Objectives

Promoting and making accessible the photographic heritage of the Great War

To describe and catalogue approximately 4,000

Involving members of the public, academics and enthusiasts in historical research

How to take part

1

Visit the Zooniverse website and search - Sovraimpressioni

2

Sign up for free or log in with your account

3

Browse the photos and add descriptions

4

Join the community and chat with other volunteers